I may go look at a 14PB with Kawi engine. owner says it runs well. I'm wondering what colour the wheels should be? In the pictures (fuzzy and from the top) I see white ones on the front. The mower is the later version with a silver deck, which by the way shows some signs of paint bubbling in a close shot of the engine tag.

I have a John Deere mower with Kawasaki engine. It is 26 years old. I have never had any trouble with it in all that time. Recently the motor began to surge - up and down. I have thoroughly cleaned the carburetor; I have made sure there is no air entering between the carburetor gaskets; I have tested to see whether the air filter could be the problem; and checked to see if there is adequate ...
